

①

LOG NO: 312/8

Left 7.31 am 7.56 am Bus to Truro:

TRAVELING
DIARIES:

Thursday 30th September 015:

I got up around 5 am: I know it was very early: I had a Wash & dried myself: I made Breakfast of porridge Oats & Apples in the porridge Oats; & then I had my Breakfast: I got everything ready yesterday, by putting things in the Rucksack & today as well; & then had a Cup of Coffee to wake myself up, & got myself Ready to leave the Building at 7.31 am and walked down to St Erth Bus stop, near the St Erth Railway Station & boarded the Bus to get to Truro I got the Bus at 7.56 am; & The Sun was shining, the leaves all glow in the Sunlight. I saw Birds flying in a V shape; as if they were heading for somewhere: It though lovely places, such as Hayle, Connor Downs, The Radio is keeping me in company, I'm listening to Radio 3. Classical Music: going through lovely Countryside a place called Roseworthy & Seagulls on the field: farmlands & farmyard on the right Rills of Hay in the farmers field & some houses in the distance heading down to Cambourne, there some grey, but also blue sky with white clouds: Its going down to Cambourne Bus station: Lollypop man on the Left:

TRAVEL DIARIES

1952 / September / 12

I got up around 5:30 and had a quick shower. I had a walk in the park and then I had my breakfast. I got dressed and went to the office. I had a meeting with the manager and then I went to the bank. I had a walk in the park and then I had my breakfast. I got dressed and went to the office. I had a meeting with the manager and then I went to the bank. I had a walk in the park and then I had my breakfast. I got dressed and went to the office. I had a meeting with the manager and then I went to the bank.

TRAVELING DIARIES

② Tuesday 30th September 015:

I saw a green Bus going to Troon but couldn't see a exhaust pipe on it I offered to move, but the Man said its alright you dont have to move. When I saw a pushchair & a lady pushing her pushchair, she managed to keep guard of her pushchair, as I did say to her there a chair clown there & she said that she has to hold her pushchair to stop it moving. Grey skies are upon us: I hope that its not going to Rain today; & that it stay dry. another Lollypop man there; waiting: going through Trunkmill past the all saints church. The weather man on the Radio said There be patchy grey sky, with some light rain. People going to work in there Cars & Vans traveling to get to work. Some of the people going to College at Pool from this 18 Bus I yawned a bit, & the Lady looked at me & I said to the Lady: That I got up at 5 am in the Morning: but she didnt say anything. Its now gone through to Pool: past the Industrial area, past the Railway Inn, past the Hospital, its going now to Redruth, The Antiques in the Antiques shop are nice to look at: past a old fashioned Bridges on the Right; and we are at Redruth Railway station now: past the Wesley Building & the Church: another pushchair Buggy; on the Bus, I asked the Lady & the Man. do you want me to move They said That they are alright.

exhaust.

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 015.

(3)

The 18 Bus has been past the Houses & the Shops: Its going through lovely forest, Trees, & Countryside: A Cafe stall on the Right, a Caravan site on the right, through to Chacewater lovely fields & Trees & Countryside through a lovely quiet old fashioned Village: There some Caravans in the field, past the Railway Bridge, a Baby crying a little bit, but has stopped: A phone Box with Books inside it. Very cold, but still a good idea. past through the industrial site: past a green that the Road worker destroyed for there terrible Road, that they the stupid idiots wanted to build:

Its now in Threemilestone Now: I cant believe that the Roadbuilders wanting to build more Roads: I wish that I could turn back the time: through the Motorway to Now to Truro, past Truro College, Buses going to school; More people leaving the bus to go to Truro College past the Chapel on the Right, past the Royal Cornwall Hospital, past the School, & they are building bloody more houses on the Right it is Crazy & stupid of them to build houses: past the County Arms Pub; past Salisburns petrol station, past the Truro Railway Station past the shops on the Left & Right past the Museum & The Arts Cafe.

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 015:

④ past the City Hall & County Hall & we finally arrived at Truro Bus station. I was so glad, because I needed to go to the toilets. The man said I wouldn't go in there, the door is not working. & I said that I needed to go in there. He said he not telling me what to do, but felt better in emptying myself. I then went to ask where the Co op was in Junction J, to ask the man, where the Co op shop was & he said, follow this Road, & its on the Right. I saw a Health shop instead, and asked for Soap that was free from palm oil; & found Olive oil Soap that I can trust, without the palm oil & Two fruit Baker Bars; One is Almond with Apricots & the other one was Traditional. The Lady at the shop, a pretty Lady ask me, are you on your travels, & I said yes I'm am, I'm going to Bridport; & going there all on my free Bus pass & I said to her, that I'm writing every detail of my travels, & did on the 18 Bus wrote every single detail down. I'm hoping to write a Book about my travels; & hopefully be famous. I said Bye to her & went back the way I came, & Realised that I had to go to the toilet, & as I was about to go there, This Man was in the toilet. With his Bum showing & I said Sorry that I didn't realise that you were in the toilet & I waited

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 015

(5)

I then waited until he finished & I said sorry to him, & I then went to empty myself again: One of the Ladies liked my Classical Music: I even asked the Lady if she had all of Cornwall timetables & she said only what is there: I was in the wrong Bus stop until I realised that the 95 Bus was going to Wadebridge, & I boarded the Bus to go to Wadebridge, or near Wadebridge: I was talking to some interesting people, of amazing history that they spoke of, of their surname of Treloar, & Bassett: & they said that William Purdy Treloar, was the Mayor of London, & his name was also John Francis Bassett; & that the Treloars made Carpets; & he told me about his life & what he did in his life, & what she did in her life: He was in the RAF forces & also did Signals work, & also a printer for the West Briton or the Cornishman that was based in Truro: & he did make a picture of Truro Cathedral using cross stitching methods & done a few of them: & he also made his own walking stick in a shape of a horse: He even met the Queen in Ceylon, but the Queen never gave him a Medal: She told me that her family surnames were inventors & made things: We talked about lots of things; & where did I come from & I told him that I was born in London when

(6)

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September OIS:

They even said to me to look up for these surnames on the Computer, & I told them my friend has a Computer, & will look it up when I get back: The Journey on the 95 Bus went through various lovely places, lovely Scenery & Countryside: I got the 13 Bus to go to Plymouth: It did what the piece of paper said: & it stopped at the Royal Cornwall Showground: & Now it went through to Wadebridge; its got a lovely River on the other side of the Bridge, & it went past the old Railway Station, which used to be The town is quite busy, & bustling with lots of people doing shopping. It going through the old bridge and the river is on the other side: The chap gave me a Card to Read & his name was Steven, but has had a stroke: thats why he showed it to me lovely Rolling Countryside, & forest of Trees at the top: There a sign on the Right the Earl of Vincent: Maybe thats where he lives there: stunning beautiful places & Rills & Rills of avenues of Trees, on each side Its heading toward Bodmin: almost a forest, very welcoming, The Sunlight hitting the leaves with its colours of Emerald Leaves; past perarrow It went through to Dunmere lovely

TRAVELING DIARIES

⑧ Tuesday 30th September OIS:

When I left London when I was 16½ years old: I moved to Henley on Thames for 5-6 years, I that, Ilonga Estahazy: Came from a Royal family background, I Hayden played classical music to them, I it was called the Queen Elizabeth House Trust in Henley on Thames I moved after that to Newtown, Reading, I it was called the Newtown Housing project. I then I moved to Oxford I felchampstead live there for a while: I went off traveling various places, I protested in different places 2 weeks in Inford Down, 2 weeks in Salisbury Hill: 2½ years down in Newbury Countryside against the Newbury Bypass. I other places: We won some, but losted some: I cant even believe that they are still making New Roads: It is crazy, I they dont learn that it is wrong to make new Roads: We know that the Road Builders are sick people: I we couldnt believe that they got away with Murder when they built solar panels on the fields: I talked about over Development: If only we could go back in time, I Repair Everything: I realise that on my sheet of paper that it said Royal Cornwall Showground to get off at, I I said I must get off here, to get a 75 Bus to plymouth: So I said good Bye to my friends, I Wished them Well I said Good Bye to the Bus driver, Thanked

⑧ from his garden shed, I started selling things & growing things that was the history of Trago; it went past all the sculptures that people made, & picked up people from Trago Mills; it had lovely woodlands & lovely countryside, & has its own cafe: We are on the way to Dobwalls past the Highwayman pub, stopped outside Dobwalls United Church, to pick up someone for the bus & it's going past Dobwalls: There was the Camel trail on left & right of its path: not far from the A58 Plymouth Road: We are at Liskeard outskirts heading down to Liskeard Town Center: I offered to move, for a lady with her pushchair buggy & she said she fine: past the school & Council offices: A new build of House at the outskirts of Liskeard: It's just madness of these building houses illness that the builders are not even from this earth but are subhuman morons: Chequered flag Cafe on the right when the bus was on the road to Plymouth: a little girl smiled at me; when they got off at Lower Chinke Lane: It's moving down the way to Plymouth: Treulefoot it said on the sign: It's going through lovely countryside & trees past the Riverside garage & Tideford, past an ancient hillfort. past Landrake & its church on its right past the Blue Walking Bridge: through another Rolls & Rolls of trees on both sides: & countryside:

I past the River Camel & its Beautiful old fashioned small bridge: I through Avenues of Trees & Countryside: They are Building House on a Huge Scale near Bodmin: Crazy House Builders, Wanting to Concrete everything, Bloody Subhumans House Builders: Bless the man, that was sitting next to me he couldn't speak, I said good Luck to him & this is a beautiful place, I Shock his hand: Its gone through the out skirts of Bodmin & into the town of Bodmin, past the shops, past the saint petroc church; and on the way to Liskeard & plymouth: past Bodmin Big police office: to the Bodmin — Dobwalls A38 Liskeard Road: I saw a Old Railway going past, I been on it some time ago: It the Bodmin — to Wenford Line: Very Beautiful train and waved at them all: past a river & Bridge & its Making it way down to Bodmin Parkway: A old fashioned Train station, against the modern train station on the left: Some of it old fashioned still: past the old Railway Bridge & heading towards to Bodmin forest: Lots & Lots of Trees and forest that Cover's the whole landscape Very Big & Wide & Lots of lovely Countryside: Bodmin is protected; Thank god for that: It makes you flow in a cream of green, in fields of green, in green pastures, that one could get lost in a forest of green trees How much we are Blessed with its Beauty of its Landscapes: We stopped at Trago Mills where the garden idea came from in Bodmin

TRAVELING DIARIES

⑩

Tuesday 30th September 015:

Lines of spent grass in Lines what the farmer did for his field: I never seen that before, it must be a new thing or method that he used for his field.

Now we are heading to Latchbrook past the ploughboy^{pub}, past the church: past the Community fire station, past Saltash football club & police station, past Saltash Wesley Church & into Saltash Town Center: past the shops: Can see a Copper Sculpture standing, its going past the Tolls bridge, past the river & its boats in the distance: I think we have landed in Devon Countryside or, Devonshire, as Rightly puts it: Its making it way down to Plymouth city Center: I saw a Lorry^{Dustman} it said Zero waste maybe they Recycle everything? past the South West Water Company at Camel's Head: a lovely golden Labrador Dog on board on the Bus: I saw Loads of Buses on there Wee house: past the ^{green} park, on the left: and following this road to Plymouth: past the Railway & Walking Bridges past Plymouth Railway Station: Its heading for the City Center: I finally arrived at Plymouth City Center at the Royal Parade: I'm having my Beans on Toast at the Cafe:

I said Thank you to the driver earlier: I'm waiting for Exeter Bus called Stagecoach X38 that Leaves at Plymouth — Exeter & leaves at 2.55 pm on A13 Bus stop:

St Stephens
Saltash:

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 015:

(10)

I got the X38 Bus from Plymouth City Center; & its going to Exeter, as we are at Devonshire now: Its now going through the Plymouth outskirts: past the Blue Walking Bridge, past the Atollments: past the train terminals, past the petrol station: Its heading for the Road to Exeter: the A38: past the Motorway Bridge near the River, past the Railway Bridge & past the Sewage works: We are now on the A38 Motorway to Exeter: going through lovely green Countryside on both sides: past Lee Mill on the Motorway: past Ivybridge & through Ivybridge outskirts: past the College: through lovely greenery: trees, Countryside hillsides & Valleys: past Brittaford, past through Wrangstone through to South Brent, & over the Bridge past the park, past more Countryside Hedges and trees on both sides through a avenue of trees, & back on the A38 Motorway to Exeter: Its going past the old church; Trees & Countryside: it just went past Old Dean: & its following the Road to Buckfastleigh on the B3380: past through lovely greenery & Countryside Buckfastleigh Railway station is on the Right side; and the Heltor garage is on the left, where I bought food from not long ago: through to the Village, or outskirts of Buckfastleigh through Wonderful Countryside: A good day its been today, lovely Sunshine

B3380

TRAVELING DIARIES

(12)

Tuesday 30th September 015:

Benedicts
Bridge

Caton

~~Bickington~~

matford

past the Dartmouth Inn pub, its following the Road to Ashburton: A Nun Boarded the Bus, I said Hello to her: a Beautiful Red wood or Fern tree standing proud: Its in the town of Ashburton quite a nice historic town; leaves covering one of its houses, with Red leaves: past the church & its going through the outskirts of Ashburton: & its Rolling Countryside on the Right & its following the way to Exeter A38; it went past Caton, over the Motorway Bridge, through to lovely Countryside of Bickington that this Bus has traveled too, past a fruit & veg stall, through to wonderful Avenues of Trees & Valleys & Countryside & Rolling Hills & past Benedicts Bridge garage: I past the Roundabout to follow Exeter A38 it went past the River, the few houses in the distance & Rolls of Rolls of Trees covering the length of the Motorway; & Countryside: past forest of Trees past Redstone sides of stone formation: past another Motorway Bridge: There seem to be some Earth works going on in the distance not good, They should be stopped: past Riverside Valley park & its River & through another ^{Old} Bridge with a River nearby: We are so near to Exeter about 3 miles to Exeter: ~~past~~ Northbrook Golf Course, past the outskirts of its evil ~~Army~~ building, past the sports ground, & its Buildings nearby & its houses, & some Old Buildings, It still has some greenery past St Lukes Campus, We are here at the Bus & Coach station: The No^s 4 arrived at Exeter Bus & Coach station; and its

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 015:

(13)

Anna Marie Tea shop in Exeter.

Its about to leave at 5.10 pm from stand 4: A Bus going to Axminster from Exeter stagecoach Bus & Coach Station: A (No⁵ 4 BUS)

Its going through the outskirts of Exeter lovely flowers on the side of the Wall; & Old metal Craved pole: on the Right: through Old Buildings, past the shops, I saw a shop called Anna Marie Teashop in the outskirts of Exeter,

& I remember Anna Marie from the plants for the future: I was also a friend of Laura Wild: I wondered if its the same person that own's that shop: going through a Old Red Sandstone Bridge & there was Cranbrock a man near it Repairing the side of the Wall or fence: It gone past the park & Rides place on the Honiton Road. past Exeter Science park; past the greenly, past the industrial site there doing the Clyst Honiton Bypass evil and wicked of the Roadworkers to do that: It is a Wicked Act of the evil Road Building that have been going on in all places in Britain

& The evil Modern House's that look like Legoland Cranbrock is a Rubbish Modern place, & its full of Legoland Crap houses: Red Leaves on a tree with green leaves on the tree; that I saw, Rolling Countryside & Trees & greenlands that welcomes us again: past the Pets shop.

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 015

Its following the way to Ottery St Marys past the Rolling hills, valleys & Trees in the distance of the Devonshire Countryside past Ottery St Marys: I saw loads of Trees in a Bundle, I also saw 3 people I dont know what happened to them trees but they seem to be in a pile:

Ottery St Marys; is a small town full of shops, pubs, went past the old church & its old houses, past the park past the Otter Nursery, pets shop, just through lovely greenery of Hedges, fields, Trees, past ~~Alfington~~ Alfington & old stone brick walls:

Red clay soil in the distance & Trees & valleys, what a nice Country Route that it went to: The Countryside is Amazing it just got better full of greenery: it gone past the Deer park: Cyclist meeting on the side of the Road: it is going along the Honiton Road: Golden Orange with a tinge of Red leaves: with green leaves on the tree near the Honiton Industrial place, past a Thatch House, its heading to Honiton Town Center: going ~~past~~ the shops: It stopped at Lace Walk Honiton for a break: It started again: There union Jack flag & Bunting everywhere, I dont know whats that about: just through Modern Houses which I didnt like, & a Castle house looked good in a Old fashioned way, on the side of the Road: Amazing Hill top can be seen from the Bus & Rolls of Countryside & greenery & Trees in the distance:

TRAVELING DIARIES

① Tuesday 30th September 015:

going past a old Village, Countryside Trees, forest, Avenues of Trees on both sides: Its Very much a picture landscape that you would see from a Artist eye point of view full of forest, valleys & full of Autumn Colours which makes it a very magical landscape & Sheep in the distance, past

Wilmington, past Kilmington and heading to Axminster: on the A358. It just went past the River Vasty a lovely River

& now its on the outskirts of Axminster: famous for making Axminster Carpets: in Devonshire:

past Axminster Train Station: ~~The X51~~ and it stopped at Axminster Train station & I then said Thank you to the bus driver, & the X51 arrived at Axminster to go to Bridport:

its all in the Night now its get dark very early: Its nearly hitting the Dorset Boundary but still in Devonshire, its went through Hunter's Inn

Burroughshot, yaw, its going through lovely Countryside, past Lime guild Lane, past the Tolbot Arms, upright Bobby Lane, The Rest room: We have hit Dorset Now

& are in Lyme Regis: past Lyme Regis medical Center, & past

Lyme Regis Town Center: Its lovely in Dorset Countryside: lovely Trees & forest: & lovely Villages, past Charmouth past the church: ? past Bridge Rd, past the

Vasty

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 015

(18)

George Inn pub, I past the Holiday park, past Moreconbelake ship Krapp, past Morcombe post office, past Morcombe bay past the Village Hall, past through lots of Villages past chideoch, past chideoch bridge
past the george pub I past the Mead, I past Wisblows its going through a lot of Countryside
but it all in the night, past stray courts past West Mead, past Bridport Medicial Center, past park Road, I arriving at the Coach station at Bridport:

at 8:07 pm or 8 something: I got off the X51 Bus; and said Thank you for a Wonderful Journey, I asked him where the chip shop was he said it up in the town, keep going straight to the town: I walked down to the Town, I went past all the shops & the local shops, pups & Cafes: it was near the town Hall: I bought some chips £1.40p, I asked him if they were cooked in vegetable oil, & he said yes:
So I bought some & asked him if he can put sauce on the chips; he said
we only do Brown Sauce, or Tomato Sauce:
So I smiled at him, & said Thank you:
I went into the Spar Shop, thinking of what to buy, & I bought some energy water, with ginseng & vitamins with added fruit & sugars & sweet chilli peanuts, & Orange Juice: (~~wasn't~~) (~~wasn't~~) I payed the Lady for the shop, & wondered off, I tried to look for a place, to find to sleep in: With my Rucksack & Trolley that had my sleeping gear

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 015

George Inn pub, I past the Holiday park, past Morecombe lake ship Krapp, past Morecombe post office, past Morecombe bay past the Village Hall, past through lots of Villages past chideoch, past chideoch bridge
past the george pub I past the Mead, I past Wisblows its going through a lot of Countryside
but it all in the night, past stray courts past West Mead, past Bridport Medical Center, past park Road, I arriving at
the Coach station at Bridport:

at 8:07 pm or 8 something: I got
off the X51 Bus; and said Thank you for a Wonderful Journey, I
asked him where the chip shop was
he said it up in the town, keep going
straight to the town: I walked down to the Town, I went past all the shops I the local shops, pubs I Cafes: it was near the town Hall: I bought some chips £1.40p, I asked him if they were cooked in vegetable oil, I he said yes:
So I bought some I asked him if he can put sauce on the chips; he said
we only do Brown Sauce, or Tomato Sauce.
So I smiled at him, I said Thank you:
I went into the Spar Shop, thinking of what
to buy, I bought some energy water, with ginseng I vitamins with added sugars fruit I sweet chilli peanuts, I Orange Juice: (~~I wondered~~) (~~I~~) I payed the Lady for the shop, I wondered off, I tried to look for a place, to find to sleep in: With my Rucksack I Trolley that had my sleeping gear

TRAVELING DIARIES

Tuesday 30th September 2015

(18)

I thought to myself that if I carried on this path, it was a lovely path of trees, & beautiful countryside lit up by grandmother moon. The whole landscape came alive, with the spirit of the moon, it was beautiful, even the valleys were beautiful, it was very special even sheep was sleeping in the field & saw a glimpse of a fox running in the fields: It was a lovely night of the moon shining away, a yellow moon with a yellow like halo: It was fantastic: I still carried on passing the fields hedges ^{fences} gates on the ^{two} sides: There was some massive trees giant trees: Big trees: I reckon some of them were over a thousand years old:

It made me happy to touch the oldest trees & talk to them a bit: & to walk on this lane or path to the old people's home known as a Care Home for the elderly operated by Bupa; & I thought it looked nice, all lightly lit up, & found a huge building & founded it when I was walking another 5 mins or less than that: It said Sports Hall: (Lottery Funded) I thought OK, I looked around to see if there was a porch, but there wasn't: So I came around this lovely green grass, next to the building: It was lush green grass: lovely to sleep in: So I put out my sleeping roll mat bundle; & made my bed, & slept in my cosy sleeping bags with a rain cover over me: I saw loads of stars shining as clear as a bell, & the moon was a brilliant yellow & changed to white.

TRAVELING DIARIES

(18) Tuesday 30th September 015:

It was so nice to be here, Very peaceful, and a Very down to Earth place: There was Trees near me, & a few houses, but they were covered with Hedges or trees: I saw a Big Star, whether it was a Big star or a Big planet, but it was so clear: White: & It was beautiful to look at: I stared at it, on & off to sleep & fell asleep: I also remembered in the Vend to put the alarm on my phone: to wake me up: & then I went back to sleep: I heard the Owls, & I joined in: The Owl must of thought that there was another Owl about, as I hoot & made a Owl sound, it sounded back to me: We played this Owl game of talking to each other: I really glad that I have a Owl spirit looking after me, Where ever I am, it follows me: Blessed is the Owls that I follow me: It was so nice to be here, I woke up with the Car moving towards the path: I thought it must be 5 am & I woke up, & I got out of Bed, Rolled my Bed up & put 2 Banya Cords straps to hold it & putted it in my trolley: I putted everything neatly away: I left it tidy & left with my words: The world is your oyster wherever I lay my hat, & showed the Earth my hat: & then walked along the path, & said Thank you for having me stay in a Beautiful place:

TRAVELING DIARIES

Wednesday 31th September 015.

(10)

And made my way back along the path, that I came along: I saw the Near Dawn light, as it started to get lighter, I could hear the Birds singing, it was a lovely time to wake up at first light; I do see the Vallys The fields, Sheep grazing, hay in Bags Forest full of Trees: I could see the Giants Trees so clearly: I touched the Giant Trees, I spoke with them; I gave my thanks to them I to Mother Earth, Granmother Moon, Granfather Sky, The Trees & Tree spirits, to Nature spirits It felt good being there: I said keep on growing for Thousands of years I said to myself that I glad that this place is protected: When I looked at the one that said private: The Owner of his Land, has killed his Trees & Chainsawed them into piles, The owner Wasnt around: It was a Complete mess of what he did to his trees: Trees are for Living, not to be killed off I feel that all Trees should be protected by Nature's Laws, & The Government should Reconise that: We need to Save all trees & to protect all trees: I founded some Water & cleaned my hands: I thought that it wasn't nice of this evil Murder that killed his trees: that he will get his Comeups ^{poor} meaning Bad Kramer to have made those trees suffer: I would like to see protection on all trees

TRAVELING DIARIES

Wednesday 31st September OIS:W

(20)

I walked on the Road I followed the sign saying the town center, I followed it to the town: There was some interesting shops there: I carried on past the town; I went to the toilets to empty myself: I washed my hands: I wrote ~~my~~ what I could remember:

Interesting I met a man, who said he was on the Road for 4 years without a sleeping bag or money I traveled around different places: He said he originates from Bristol, I that he slept on park benches, I go into hostels; I ended up getting a job working as a porter in a hostel: I saved up £8000 in 4 years; I decided to move up to Yorkshire working in the pub: He said he couldn't do that job for long because it was from 5am — 5pm or from 5pm —

5am, I you needed your sleep I the room was very tiny shared with another person: Two beds (a bunk bed) He also told me about his hand that needed some many stitches out: he said it will take 6 months to get better: He told me he can use some of his hand: I said to him will it get better: He said in 6 months time it will: The sun is shining still I told him about my adventures, that I went to Buckfastleigh, Totnes, Kingsbridge to see the old buses

TRAVELING DIARIES

Wednesday 30th September 015

(21) on the 19th September 015: to go on the old fashioned Buses: I told him that I traveled all the way from St Erth Cornwall I traveled from yesterday: He told me to keep on traveling: I told him that I completed Book 1, Book 2: of my Adventure Stories of my travels: I going to write a Book about it soon, and he said why not, make some money on it: I said that you should write a book about your travels as well: I asked him if he wrote in his diaries about your travels, & he said he have done in the past: I said to him: your Bus 51 Bus has arrived to Dorchester & he told me there be one at 9.52 am I told him that's the one I want to go on: I said I got a free Bus Pass and can only use it after 9.30 am: It crazy he thought having to wait until 9.30 am he said: I told him that it is crazy: I told him that I chose my own time to travel there, & he said that's the best way: We shook hands, & said our good Byes, & I waved at him from the Bus station: I'm am ready to have Coffee now at the Cafe bar: The Cafe bar was closed & the chap, said to me: When I said to him that the Cafe was closed, & he said they are going to Churu for a two week holiday lucky them he said: & I thought, oh well not to worry:

TRAVELING DIARIES

Wednesday 31st September 015:

(28)

This is the second Leg on my Journey
The X51 has left at 9.52am, & its leaving Bridport Bus station, it went past the shops, Cafes, pubs: & past lovely Countryside, Hillstiles & Trees & Hill forts: past Walditch past green Cottage past Billy goat lane: past the sheeps on the fields past Vallies, & fields, past Long Ready Island, past Little globe Return, Amazing forest of Trees - past the Coach & Horses, Winterbourne Abbas, a very lovely old Village, a nice thatched house, & a nice old Bus shelter: & One or two pubs there: & some nice old houses there: through Avenues of Trees Rolling hay in the field; We are passing through to Poundbury Queen Mothers Square: What awful Modern Buildings they have built, & there Messing up the Land again to build more Bloody houses I get sick of New Build's Houses:
It upsets me, going to the outskirts of Poundbury which is a large Town:
Which go through some Historic Buildings Dorset Museum is a interesting Museum & St Peter's Church, they are both old fashioned Buildings & the Church on the Right is Old too: There's a nice line of Scammore trees, & other trees growing there: Its heading down to Dorchester South Station; I got off at Dorchester South Railway Station at 10.40 am: I asked the Man about

TRAVELING DIARIES

Wednesday 31st September 015:

(27) I saw the add on the Bus that Damory is a local Bus Company that run in the Dorset area: I also saw a Electric Bus, how cool is that, I think it sponised by Dorset County Council: I dont reckon much to these Modern Buildings that have built over the years: I want to see more of Old Dorset of how it used to be & to see more of Old Dorset: The Modern age is a little bit too much for me: I like the Old fashioned Ways of living: I just got on the X12 Bus to get to Salisbury; it just left at 11:40 am — it gone through Dorchester Town, & the shops, Markets, & The Old Church, I had to redirect the Man who was disabled to direct him into the chair at the back: I told the lady where I travel from; I told her that I slept at Bridport near the woods & slept at near the Sports Hall: Its going through lovely greenly, forest trees, Rolling Hills & lovely Countryside: It went to Puddletown, its on its way on the A354 to Bradford Forum: lovely hillsides a River running through it & fields & Countryside, shrubs on both sides past ancient Building, & more Ancient Building such as the Thatch Old post office, & Rolls of Countryside, farmland where there will be ~~(are)~~ growing something soon; its now at Winterbourne Witchurch: Its now opposite the River Winterbourne: past the c.

TRAVELING DIARIES

Wednesday 31st September 015: W

(25)

Its gone through lovely Countryside Trees, fields, forest in the distance
A farmer using a Tractor for his field through avenues of Trees: Blue skies with pillows of white clouds. It going through to Blandford forum past a River & Country fields & Old Buildings
It seems a lovely Ancient Town called Blandford Forum, past the shops some of the shops are local:
past old Buildings & Old houses:

There lovely greenly on the Outskirts
We are following the Salisbury Way Saw a Truckload of Huge Bundles of Logs Trees, on the lorry: I thought that's horrible; to see that have been killed; because of Stupid Man's mentality: It gone ~~was~~ green fields, Countryside, Trees, & Countryside through pocketsfull of small forest & huge forest dotted around the landscape:

past Cashmoor, past huge fields through Hedges: Its going through a narrow Road to Six penny Hambley, past the Horse's in the field: past the old houses, & two cyclist having a break; & past the old Buildings, through green fields, & Countryside: I asked the lady on the Bus when does it hit the Wiltshire Bounelley Line: she said Woodjates: she even gave me a Banji coroll for my Trolley, Very friendly Lady: It still T. Confused bench there? We said

Six penny
Hambley
Hambly

TRAVELING DIARIES

(25) Wednesday 31st September OIS:

We just hit the Hampshire Boundary, going through lovely Countryside Trees, farmlands, & fields & Hedges in the distance past old farm buildings old & some New buildings, past sheep in the Hillsides with Trees on the top: & lovely Vallies: past the old church & Bridge & River & past the Old Buildings; On the A354 to Salisbury: It a amazing Countryside: It will soon hit the Wiltshire Boundary soon I think this could be in Wiltshire Now: Yes Salisbury Cathedral I can see: We are at Salisbury Wiltshire Now: past all the Old fashioned Buildings & Old fashioned Houses, & there a giant Old fashioned Wall beside it with green leaves are glowing in the Sunshine and past all the shops some of them local & some are not: Some shops are Old fashioned shops: Which is nice to see: I asked a man, where the bus for Tidsworth, & do they still have a Bus Station, & he said there isnt one anymore One of the bus drivers said its at Opposite Debenhams: I had to ask where Debenhams was, & found it at last: The No^s 8 Bus to Tidsworth, but the good News is there is a Swindon Bus X5 that goes to Swindon from Salisbury which is good News for me: Which I dont have to go to Tidsworth:

TRAVELING DIARIES:

(26)

Wednesday 31st September 015:

I was asking the Italian Man about the Bus of the X5 & he said that its not going to Swindon I found it very puzzling, & said that its on the signpost & he said its a different Company & I wanted a bus that goes to Swindon & he said very soon that it will arrive: in 20 minutes time: the X5 or 5 going to Swindon Bus station:

Im finally arrived on the X5 its leaving at 2:20 pm. I asked the Couple how long that its takes to go to Swindon & they said in 2 hours: I said Thank you to them both:

he said it will get there at 4:20 pm to Swindon: It went past Salisbury & all its shops: & past the outskirts of Salisbury; past the park & Camp site past the trees & Countryside of Wiltshire glorious Countryside, past fields & forest & warehouses, A Big Bomber plane flying very low: Its Crazy that they are flying low: Its Madness: past some more Countryside, past

Amesbury: Bloody Tilods, Building Roads & Houses at Kings Gate: This Government is for the damage towards the Enviroment has got a lot to answer for, That this Government is Brain Dead, & doesnt seem to care about the Enviroment This Modern Age stinks; past the park & its greenly

TRAVELING DIARIES

(27) Wednesday 30th September OIS: (82) past the Modern houses, the greenly past the trees, and green verges: I past some Old houses: past a Old wall, past the shops; through to Amesbury & its shops:
past more horrible Modern buildings:
past Burcombe, its heading for Burford:
past the pylon station, past the houses past Bulford High street; Bulford Hill: past the shops I am at Durrington past the Library post office, 28 School children boarded the Bus: past old houses & Old walls:
I past New houses: past the Builders firm are now on the A385 to Devizes, past farmers fields & Buildings, past old houses:
past the green fields, past the greenly & its trees; I past the ploughed fields, past more avenues of trees; past a Thatch Cottage; & other Thatch Cottages, & old & Modern houses: past Northerton, past the trees, and on the Road, I past Newtown and past Enford; it leaves the way to Marlborough: very beautiful Autumn trees with different colours: loads of trees & Countryside past a Old Thatch Cottage I past more Thatch Cottages & a Old Pub I past Upavon Village, past North Newtown, past the Woodbridge Inn pub; past green trees & fields, and past old houses:
past farmers fields, past Countryside: stopped Sharlott to change Bus drivers: Its gone past Pewsey, a lovely village & its show of Thatched Cottages: & Old Houses & Old Churches past the old shops & some New shops: past more old houses.

upavon

TRAVELLING DIARIES PART

(28)

Wednesday 31st September OIS

past the forest, and its greenery:
past old houses, Mansions, fields Hedges: Trees lots of old houses & Old Brick walls & Woodern fences: through a avenue of Autumn gold & Emeralds Leaves on the trees: past plough fields: & lovely lush Countryside & more lush forest of Trees: Sunlight Reflecting upon all of the trees: & It followed the Road to Marlborough: & past the old houses the old shops & churches & past the Old Buildings & The Old Town Hall: A lot of Local shops aswell with Modern shops: I like the Old fashioned local shops: they have got Character: its going through the Road to Hungerford and the trees are amazing lots & lots of forest full of beautiful trees landscapes valleys pocketfulls of Trees With fields Cover up the landscape past Buildings Rolling Hills, Flat Lands, sheep in the Vallies: There were some workers there with Machines: I dont know whats going on but there a farmer there: Forest of Trees on the top of the Earth & fields: Its going to Chisletown Very modern Houses & Some Old, past the pub, past the park: & its houses & on the Swindon Road on the A346:
& not the Hungerford that I mention earlier: Bloody Traffic again, these Bloody Cars going at the same time: What a rush of Motorway Hoggers

TRAVELING DIARIES

Wednesday 31st September 015:

(29)

and it worst around this time, because everyone is leaving at the same time; it just create bloody traffic: bloody Military went past with their bloody lorries: I think we are nearly there & heading on the A346 to Swindon. We are at Swindon: past the Motorway past Coate Water Nature park: going through the way to Swindon, past houses & green trees past Swindon College, past the post office & all the buildings & houses, industrial place; & finally arrived at Swindon Station. I got off, and waited for the 66 Stagecoach Bus to Oxford, leaving from Swindon Bus station; & the noise from the workers drilling into metal with driving me mad, I just wanted the driver to get a move on; to get on his bus to let us in on his bus: & finally left the wretched place ^{at 5 PM}. I remember asking for a leaflet for Oxford, but I then got the wrong one: oh silly me: Its now leaving Swindon past the shops & houses, & its on the A420 Road to Oxford: going past the Motorway, past the trees: & lots of cars traveling back from work to travel in to these places where they live: & this bus is going places, through lovely countryside, trees, & countryside fields: We hit the boundary of Oxfordshire: Oxfordshire is where I first came to when I was nearly 17 years old: & spent 5 or 6 years in Henley on Thames Oxfordshire: Rather fond memories of Oxfordshire

TRAVELING DIARIES

(30)

Wednesday 28th September 015

I also living at Filchamstead near Cumnor Hill, not far from farmoor Res: It Just been to Shiversham, a lovely old fashioned Village, with old fashioned pub called the prince of Wales & Old fashioned Houses, it is very Beautiful, a lovely greenly lots of beautiful Countryside & Trees as golden green past the Modern houses again.

We are now on the Faringdon Road & its about 22 miles to Oxford quite a way to go: through lovely Oxfordshire Countryside that the 66 Bus Route is following the A420, past the farms, past loads & loads of Trees, & Just turned off to follow the Road to Faringdon past the ^{Modern} Houses & Old Houses, past hedges & walls & past the shops & churches, & old Buildings & Red Leaves on the Building looks Sweet:

It stoped outside The Old Crown pub a very Old Pub: past the old shops, & old pubs, & New shops; & Old Buildings quite a nice old Market town: & on the way to Oxford on the A420: going through lovely Countryside, fields, ploughlands, trees, & forest past the Nature park, past the School, past lovely fields: it is Gods Country & Goddess of course:

Its Just lovely everywhere: & very Beautyfull: lovely Old houses, but there were some Modern house there. I didnt like: Some More ugly Modern houses

TRAVELING DIARIES

Wednesday 31st October 015:

(31)

That I don't like, I wish they stop building houses, & that the Developers Run out of money: I was out of Business Meaning Bankrupt: (≠) it gone past St Lawrence's church, all the old buildings past lot more trees on the A420 Route to Oxford: Its only 6 miles to Oxford: past Besselsleigh & its old pub: It is so Golden The tree tops & bushes; it went past lovely fields & ploughlands, Its arrived at Oxford: past all the shops, industrial estate: the Bridge: past the pubs, & its Bridge & past the Atollments, past the Cafe, the Bridge the Railway Station: past the Royal Hotel: past the pub again & nearing it at the Bus & Coach station at Oxford:

I made it in 2 days: Hip Hip Horay!
I then caught the S1 Bus from Oxford; it went past the shops, the Canal & River, past the Industrial area; past the pubs, past the Road Bridge at Botley, past the shops at Botley: past the Bank, & past the church, on the way to farmoor past Deans Court; past the houses, & green Trees & Brushes, past the hearing center, past the farmlands, & fields: past Oaklands people Home: & past farmoor Garage, & got off the farmoor turning opposite the farmoor stores; I got walking; after saying Thank you to the Bus driver; & for a pleasant Journey: I got all my things, from the Bus & walked down to Fildershamstead Past the houses &

(82)

Wednesday 31st September 015:

past the offices; past the trees & fields; past some more houses, & fields past Farmoor Res, & past the Nurseley & the Wood yard; & followed Lower Whitley Road, Filchampsstead: to meet my friend Brian Hanford: & to say Hello to him, & to spend a few days with my friend: & That was the end of my two day adventure using all the Buses from St Erth Cornwall — Filchampsstead Oxfordshire: on my free Bus pass: I even recall telling the Three ladies of my Travels & They were so impress that one of the ladies wanted to do that, & get a four wheel trolley: Whether she do that or Whether it pure fantasy that she talking about have to wait & see: If in future I see her on her travels: I will greet her, & say Hello, or if our paths meet, & we both traveling in the same direction in our travels with our trolleys of Camping gear, she is more than welcome to join me if she wants: I wonder if other people will take up the urge & do what I was doing & travel around long distances from place to place from County — to another — County until they get to there destination & give themselves a pat on the Back: & to celebrate with a drink, to know that one has made it:

A Day out:
Sunday 4th October 015:

(33)
A lovely Time to Wake up early; Just before the Sunrise & the Birds were Singing & I had a Small Wash & dried myself; & had Breakfast that my Old Cycling friend Called Brian Hanford, that I remember from Years ago; Made my porridge, I had it with Apple puree & Banana & Mashed it up. It was nice, & had Coffee & some Vegan Biscuits, & I Went to walk down to farmoor Bus stop, & It said On the ^{computer} information Scene: That there will be in in 27 minutes; so I then went to the shop, & bought some Orange Juice for £1, & waited for the Bus, Made Tunes for myself while waiting for the Bus, & talking to myself. I talking to nice people on the Bus & they were very kind & listened to my stories of my travels; & she said that there is a Bus Museum down at Long Hamborough & its open on Wednesdays & Saturdays & maybe Sunday; & I said that I will cheque it out one of these days I said Bye to them & They said Bye to me, & I Thanked them for the information & I got off at the Bus station at Oxford; trying to find out about the Old fashioned Buses, & none of them knew anything

Sunday 4th October 015 (Day out) about them: So I went down to ask the Tourist Information in the Train station; she said that there was a old fashioned train yesterday at the Oxford Railway Station, which I damn missed I didn't know that there was one: she said there is another Tourist Information Center at Broad Street so I went down there, Required about it, & they said its at Long Hamborough I even checked if there was any Buses going to Long Hamborough None what's so ever, so I thought that there's a another Religious Service where the Buses that don't run on Sundays to Long Hamborough, that they go to Church, with there Buses I go to church: In my sense of Humor: & they said that there is only a Train Service that goes to Long Hamborough & when I got there, I asked the Man for a Cheap Return to Long Hamborough & back & he said There is no trains going there, but there is a Rail Replacement Coaches going to Long Hamborough at 12:15 pm & it cost about £3.10 p Return from Oxford — Long Hamborough & Long Hamborough — Oxford: So he said there is a long wait, & I said well it is my Birthday today, & said Oh I will buy it & wait till 17:15 pm, and asked how

Day out Sunday 4th October 015:

(35) long the Coach takes I she said 20 minutes: So I said That's not too bad; I will come back, & I checked to see if there was any Cafes about, one of the corner Cafe closed next to the pub: I asked a couple if they do a Cafe in the V.H.A. & they said Yes, & I said Brilliant, I will go in & there I have a Coffee, & so I did I bought a Coffee for £1.50p & ate some of my Vegan Biscuits to calm myself down: That patience is a virtue: I even tried Vegan fudge I little piece from the fudge shop: & it was made out of Soya Milk: Completely Vegan: & it was free to try a small piece: as it was my Birthday: We have Boarded the Coach for the 12:15 pm Coach to Long Hamborough & it is going at 12:15 pm: It left a minute late at 12:16 pm: It's going past the allotments, the Houses, the Churches, past Waitrose that Crazy Supermarket: past the trees, garage: past the Bridges, & the pub: past the trees & forest of Whytham, past the motorway, past the Railway line, I saw a military vehicle going past, which I didn't like: I saw a sign saying Salishus It made me wondered how they got the Classical Composer's name: It's going the way to Woodstock: A44: past Oxford Airport: Past the old houses:

210 (red dot) Day out: Sunday 4th
October 015

(36) It's going to Long Hamborough on the A405. It arrived at the Bus Museum: I paid £4.50p to go to the Bus Museum: I had a look around: It was fantastic & interesting: This Bus is a Morris FF twin deck: (14 LFC): It is going to North Leigh: Oxfordshire: It has a lovely engine sound, its going on the A405, passing through houses, Countryside, Trees, farmers fields, forest of trees: North Leigh is a pretty Village, there are some very old houses there, past the church past through hedgerows, past Fynsham Hall past the forest, back to Hamborough: & to Long Hamborough, past the shops petrol station, fields, past houses, past a old Thatched pub; past the Bridge & Railway Line: & fields & its back on the Old Oxford Bus Museum:
then it left again at 3pm & it went to the Rally & back: It went through lovely Countryside & past old houses, & past lovely green fields, past lovely green forest of trees: & past Blandon: which is a very historical place, a very pretty Village: It went along along the A405 to go to Oxford Airport: & then turned around to go to the Rally: It stopped at the Rally field: & there was old fashioned cars there: & a old fashioned Bedford Van a 1960 Van in good condition:

Sunday 4th October 015:

Day
Outs:

(37)

They had some lovely Vintage Cars there: & This man & lady had lots of Magazines, that he & his wife didn't want any more: So I told them that I be interested in all of them So I looked the whole lot; not Realising that the Blue Bag Brochen by the sheer weight I asked if they had a bag but none of them had a bag to give to me: So I waited untill the Next Bus arrived & it was an Oxford Bus, a really old Bus, I hopped on that: & It went through lovely Countryside when going back past Blandon, there was lovely forest nearby, & fields: It was very Beautiful going through Hamborough & Long Hamborough & then back to the Bus station at Long Hamborough: I Asked for a Big Bin bag, for my Magazines: & She gave me two bags that was strong enough: I told them that they didn't want these Magazines & they gave them to me for free: I said Thank you: & Asked if they did take away Coffee but she didn't have any take away cups So I said dont worry: I said Bye to them all, I said I see you Next time: & I told them I enjoyed every Moment of it all; I had my Orange Juice & something to eat, I am now waiting for the Bus now to go to Oxford Bus station: Which I asked a man earlier how long will I have to wait for the Next bus & he said There will be one in 2 hour:

(38)

So I waiting for it to arrive & it should be here soon, not too long I hope: It arrived at 12:05pm, but didn't leave until 2:15pm. It went past Oxford, past the shops, the houses past the Canal & Bridge, past the church, past the industrial sites, past the pubs & headed to near Botley, & turned off following it past the motorway to Woodstock but we turned off not far from Eynsham following it to get to Long Hanborough where the Bus Museum is, & where the Buses are: I had a look at the Bus Museum: I loved every moment of it: They had all the Old Buses there, plus the Old Signs, information about them: I took me a good hour or so looking around the Museum & I bought two Bus Magazines to do with Oxford: I went on the Blue

Day Out
Sunday 4th October 015:

(38)

So I waited for it to arrive & it should be here soon, not too long I hope: The Coach arrived at 5 something pm; because it was a Rail Replacement; because they were repairing the Rails track; British Rail was, I got talking to this lovely chap, who was very friendly & very much into Old Buses, and old Trains; I told him that I was also into old Trains & Buses, He told me that he goes everywhere to go on these old Trains & Buses. He told me that he liked Old Trains Better: We had a great time talking about old Buses & Old Trains & I told him where I was from and where I traveled from: He was Impressed & I said to him that I used my Bus pass after 9:30 pm to get to places: free on my Bus pass: He said that's good: He said that he hoped to see me on a event somewhere: & I said its possible that we will meet at a event somewhere: It passed through lovely Countryside, Trees, forest, farmlands & Villages of Bladon & other places: The Sun was shining on my Birthday: It was a lovely day: When we got to Oxford Railway Station, I said good Bye to him & He said ^{good} Bye to me & we went our different ways: I caught the Bus outside the Old Church at Botley & it went to Farmoor, & I walked from Farmoor to Filechampstead & arrived back at Brian Hanford Place & Relaxed & had a look at my Buses & Trains magazines:

Day Out
Sunday 4th October 012

(28)

I went to Farnham & I walked from Bus outside the Old Church of Botton & & went in different ways. I caught the T said good bye to him & he said good to me When we got the Oxford Railway Station on my birthday. It was a lovely day Botton & other places. The sun was shining (Cotswolds, trees, forest, farmland & villages of Event somewhere. It passed through lovely & I said it possible that we will meet at a In regard to see me on a great occasion.
Bus goes. He said that good. He said that after 9.30 pm to get to place. Five or ten & I said to him that I need my Bus pass and where I traveled from. He was surprised Old Trains & I told him where I was from great time talking about Old Buses & In fact Old Trains Botton. We had a these old Trains & Buses. He told me that we that he goes everywhere to go on was also into old Trains & Buses. He told , and old Trains, & told him that I Very friendly & very much into Old Buses & got talking to the lovely chap, who was Repairing the Rails track. British Rail was & Rail Replacement; because they were at 5 something pm; because it was I was I hope; The Coach arrived & it should be here soon, not to So I waited for it to arrive

TRAVELING DIARIES:

Monday 5th October 015:

(39) I got up pretty early: before Dawn: I had a Wash, & changed myself & ~~my~~ got myself ready: Brian, my good old Celtic friend, made porridge Oats: & I putted in Banana & Apple puree in the porridge & mixed it up: I then had a Black Coffee: I phoned up about the Bus timetables of how to get to A — B: It took a long time to find out, I was on the phone for about a hour or more, as it not simple as that; because theres different phone numbers to ring; but in the end, I wrote all the places, & times to get there in my Note pad. I got to farmoor in good time, I got the 9:44 am bus to Oxford: I am going to make the Connection; it is Raining today, hopefully it will be dry later on, maybe there be some Sunshine, or just a dry day: past the Countryside, & all the way to Oxford, past the houses, the shops & past the V.H.A past the Railway Station & on the way to the way to the Coach station to Oxford, to be connected to a Bus called the 66 to Swindon: I hope I make it on time to get to Swindon: There a lot of Traffic on the Road & Roadworkers & that doesnt help:

TRAVELING DIARIES

Monday 5th October 015:

(20) We left at 10.15 am in the morning on Number 66 leaving from Oxford Bus station — going to Swindon. It's going past the shops, houses, bridges, industrial estate; past some more houses, and past the pub & following the A420 to Swindon past the countryside; they seem to be building more houses, not that far from Oxford: Another crazy idea of the bloody government is to build houses: It's sheer madness: It's going ^{Bus 66}
along the A420 past the trees, fields, countryside, forest, it's a nice route that the 66 Bus is going to, lots & lots of nice countryside forest & trees, that I can see from the bus window; & fields: It's a smooth ride on the Stagecoach gold 66 Bus ride heading to Farington it went past Kingston Bagpize, a lovely village, with trees, grasslands, there some modern houses there & there some old fashioned houses there
past the old church & past the Wagon & Horses pub, past some old buildings & walls: past the fields, trees & countryside, and it's back on the A420 Road to Swindon.
past the fields, trees, & countryside & forest that I can see in the distance: It's still rainy in certain places & grey skies are upon us. Still

TRAVELING DIARIES:

Monday 5th October 015:

(39) I got up pretty early: before Dawn. I had a Wash, & changed myself & ~~my~~ got myself ready: Brian, my good old Cycling friend, made porridge Oats: & I putted in Banana & Apple puree in the porridge & mixed it up: I then had a Black Coffee; I phoned up about the Bus timetables of how to get to A — B: It took a long time to find out, I was on the phone for about a hour or more, as it not simple as that; because theres different phone numbers to Ring; but in the end, I wrote all the places, & times to get there in my Note pad: I got to farmoor in good time, I got the 9:44 am bus to Oxford, I am going to make the Connection; it is Raining today, hopefully it will be dry later on, maybe there be some Sunshine, or just a dry day: past the Countryside, I all the way to Oxford, past the houses, the shops & past the V.H.A past the Railway Station I on the way to the way to the Coach station to Oxford, to be Connected to a Bus called the 66 to Swindon: I hope I make it on time to get to Swindon: There a lot of Traffic on the Road & Roadworkers & that doesnt help:

TRAVELING DIARIES

Monday 5th October 015:

(20)

We left at 10.15 am in the Morning a Number 66 leaving from Oxford Bus station — going to Swindon. It's going past the shops, Houses, Bridges, industrial Estate; past some
more houses, and past the pub
& following the A420 to Swindon
past the Countryside, They seem to
be building more houses, not that far
from Oxford: Another Crazy Idea of the Bloody Government; to build houses: It's sheer Madness: It's going ^{Bus 66}
along the A420 past the trees,
fields, Countryside, forest, it's a nice route that the 66 Bus is going to, lots & lots of nice Countryside
forest & trees, that I can see from the Bus window; & fields: It's a smooth ride on the Stagecoach gold 66 Bus ride heading to Farington it went past Kingston Bagprize, a lovely Village, with trees, grasslands,
there some Modern houses there &
there some old fashioned houses there
past the old church & past the Wagon & Horses pub, past some old Buildings & walls: past the fields,
trees & Countryside, and it's back
on the A420 Road to Swindon:
past the fields, trees, & Countryside
& forest that I can see in the distance: It's still Rainy in certain
places, Grey skies are upon us, Still

TRAVEING DIARIES
Monday 5th October 015:

(29) Still it might clear up soon, There still a lot of Autumn Colours in the Leaves of yellow, Browns, Orange, & Red & greens on the leaves of Trees on the Route of the A420, I past a lovely old hake & fields & Countryside, It is a lovely time of the year, Autumn time, very special time. Its going to Faringdon & it stopped at Faringdon & picking some people up with 4 wheel trolleys, only two people up it going past the houses, The pub & it went to Strimlingham, lovely Village it past through, & lovely Countryside & Trees & fields & past the forest & it went along the A420 to Swindon I was talking to a lovely dear old lady, about my traveling experiences & where I been to, I told her that I used my Bus pass from St Erth Cornwall — Oxford in two days she was so impressed with that. I told her of another time, that I traveled from St Erth — Buchfastleigh — Totnes — Kingsbridge & back to St Erth; I told her that I been following the Old Buses event at Long Hanborough & the Museum there, I told her that one of them went to North Leigh & the other one went to the Rally site & that there was a man & lady there that wanted

TRAVELING DIARIES
Monday 4th October 015:

(42) to get rid of Bus Magazines I said I have the whole lot One of my Bags burst, I had to wait for the next bus to Long Hambrough Bus station, I ask for 2 plastic Bags from the Cafe that a lady gave me two plastic bags.

When I waited for the Coach it was a hour or so wait until the Coach took me back to Oxford. She said that one of her friends started off the stagecoach in Cadden, Scotland, with one Coach, & that it grew into more Coaches, & it was a local Bus Company to begin with, & then it got big & became Multi National. She said there's Stagecoaches everywhere. She told me a local Bus Company called Thame & Down that run local services, & she was heading for Malborough. We talked about life, & talked about the good old days before traffic, before privatisation, & she said there used to be a Supermarket bus going to Safeways, but they the Council stopped that. I said that was silly of the Council to ~~do that~~ ^{take that} away.
& she said that the local people depend on that. She was also telling me the places she used to know that Wantage is now got loads of Modern Houses being built on, & another place she mention: I told her, that they the developers wanting to Resin

TRAVELING DIARIES:

Monday 5th October 015:

(4B)

St Erth & places, near St Ties a place called Cam Liney, which is 2000 years old, & very Ancient ground.
& We want to save those places:
We got to Swindon Bus Station at 10.35 am; ~~my~~ said good Bye to her & Wished her well on her travels & she Wished me well, & I said Thank you to her, & said Thank you for a lovely Journey to the Bus driver. I then had enough time to go to the toilet & empty myself & boarded the X5 to Salisbury, it was leaving at 10.40 am:
It went past Swindon, past the Bus station, that keeps Thames Down Travels a local Bus Company: past the shops, the Buildings, along the Route to Salisbury, through lovely Countryside & Trees, forest, & been through a few places: past houses, its now in Marlborough quite a Ancient Town, with its Old Buildings & Old Houses, Old Churches, old pubs, Old Shops, some of the shops are Modern: past the Banks, past the Cafes & Supermarkets. It stopped outside a Old Building to pick up more people & just settled off again: past the gardens & walls; & Monuments, & is on the Road to Salisbury, it went past the River Kennet. past the police station, its going up Graham Hill:
past lovely greenery: past a Old house fields, Countryside, past forest of trees

TRAVELING DIARIES
Monday 5th October 015:

(4A)

It's on the flat Road now, a avenue of Trees on both Sides Some houses in the distance: past shrubs, & greenery: & fields: It is So lovely to look at! There is a Sight Mist about in forested areas past some more Old houses, It like we going through a Tunnel of greenery, very pretty & beautiful.
past a farmers building Shop, past a Thatch house, following this Road to Pewsey there seem a lot of Old houses & some Modern Houses about
We just went over the Old Brick Bridge, beside the River Kennet: past the Railway station, & more old houses & Old gardens, & some Modern buildings & some Modern houses: We are at Pewsey: Thatched Old houses, not far from the Bus stop, & Old & Modern shops in the Village or small town: past the police station & Monument & Old Churches & Old walls & Old Buildings, past the petrol garage: I saw back there that they are building 7 New houses there: It's crazy; how they get away with that: Im still on the X5 Red's Bus going to Salisbury: Its changing Bus drivers, & another Bus driver has taken it on: Its passing through fields, Countryside, shrubs, past a Old house pasted Old farmers buildings of Red Brick style: Past more Old houses

Monday 5th October 015:

(45)

I pass a lovely looking Bus shelter, past fields & Countryside, past a River & Bridge, past the forest, & Rolling fields & Sheep on the land, past more Old houses & pasted Old walls: We are now at upvon opposite the ships pub & the other pub & its heading towards Salisbury still: past fields, green lands, Trees, & Sheeps in fields; past old Brick farm Building past the river on the left: past forest, Vallies, Rolling Hills, Flat Lands, past Old Thatched houses: past Newtown, past forest & fields & more old farm Buildings Its gone down to Mill Lane now, past Modern houses, Old houses, Modern shops: Old Buildings We are at Netheravon Now, past old brick walls & Old Thatch houses: & old gardens: Its a Ancient Village its going past an old Military place, past a Maniston; right into Forest & Trees, and a little River running through it, past the Old houses & old Buildings: Hay in the fields are Sacked up High, past a Graveyard, past fields, past Houses Old & Some New houses: We are at Durrington, now, past the trees & allotments on the left: past the stonehenge Inn pub: Its gone past Netheravon Road, past the houses, past the Cross Monument past more old Old houses & Modern houses, its heading for ^{express} Burford: past the shops, past Tesco's & Rangers Garage, past the Old Church, past the Rose & Crown pub, past the old & Modern Houses

TRAVELING DIARIES:

Monday 5th October 015:

(46)

of Burford: Its Heading the way to Amesbury: past the Industrial site: ~~past~~ its Now at Amesbury past Minton Industrial park, past the garden center, past more old & Modern houses, past greenery: Hedges, old walls, a chequered style house building past the School, past the sports center past the library, The greyhound pub past lovely greenery of yellow & green leaves on trees; & Brushes: Its at Boscombe Road now, It is still raining, down to Holders Road now, past old & New houses, A little Monument on the side, but is Moldely built.
going near Vernon Close, past along a Housing estate: Raleigh Crescent, following the road to the Town Center near Underwood drive; past a park, & greenery, past Modern Crap Houses, past wooden fences; & Farm buildings past More Mad Build Houses. I think the human Race is Brain Dead Why isn't there anyone protesting against New Builds: Why do we allow the Developers get away with Murder? We should Really stop these Evil Developers of building houses: we are at High post now; & passing through fields, Trees, Countryside, Blue pipes in the field? something to to with water: you could see The sheer volume of house ~~in~~poncing

TRAVELING DIARIES

Monday 5th October @15:

(45) on Land; people need to Wake up Now, I put a stop to over Development.
past Old houses, & Modern houses: Double glazed Windows look ugly. There only a few people that have kept to Traditional Sash Windows. & old windows:
past Old Brick Walls; Stone Walls, Shrubs Trees near houses, past the Railway Bridge
I think we are at Salisbury Now:
past the Shops, the pubs: I got off at Salisbury Opposite Debenhams: I Asked where the direction for the X12 & he said it, Two stops to your Left.
& I Thanked the Driver for a lovely Journey; I had to use the toilets, I used the toilets at the Cafe the Man said where are you going, & I said I'm using the toilets, & said that I will buy a Coffee from him: He said as long as you buy from you, you can use our toilet, & the Man who was drinking his Coffee, said there is a public toilets but they charge 20p, & they don't charge in the evenings; he said in future reference; I told him that I do a lot of traveling, & also go to the old fashioned Buses Venue.
& he said there was one in Dorchester & I said that I really wanted to go to, that is he mentioned about King Alfred Bus group in two weeks they meet up, and go on old Buses I told him about my travels & that I been to Oxford, Long Hambergh

TRAVELING STORIES

Monday 5th October 015:

(48)

I to other places: to see the old fashioned Buses: I mentioned that I been to Kingsbridge on the 19th September & that it went everywhere! He told me, that he had a interest in Old Buses, I'm even told him that I have a interest in Old trains aswell. I mention to the people of where I was going; & where I traveled from: It left at 2:40 pm & it was a X5 Bus going too Dorchester: Which will arrive at 4:50 pm: It went past Salisbury, past the old & Modern shops, past the Museum, a Old 1655 Church, it went past Exeter Road, heading the Road to Dorchester past the old Buildings, past the Old houses, past a lovely garden of Roses of all colours, past old fashioned walls: We been through lovely Countryside, fields forest & Trees, we went through a lovely Village called Six penny Handley; it had old houses fields, a horse, Countryside, ploughfields, Bushes, shrubs, We are on the Main Road now, passing through, shrubs, Trees, old house, fields, more ploughfields through to Tashmore, fields ploughfields, Trees & forest in the distance

TRAVEL JOURNAL
Monday 5th October 015

(49)

We are near the River Tarrant past the Old houses, farm buildings past ploughfields again, past Hedges Countryside, past pineders, old houses & Modern houses, past Hedgerows Trees, Atollment, We are at Blandford Forum, past the old houses & New houses, past shrubs & Trees, through to the Town Center, past the Shops, & past the Old Buildings & New Buildings, & heading to the School to pick up School children, that are heading to their destinations that the X5 Bus did: I talked to a man that have traveled to abroad & places, quite a interesting man, & I told him about my Travels; & where I been: past the School, past the houses, past Blandford Community Hospital, past Red Metal fencing, past the Forum Center, past Damery Street, past Oakfields Court & all the old & Modern houses, past the Shops The pubs, past the Old church, past the Old Town Hall, & the Banks, past the Crown Hotel, past the park & fields, & a River near the Bridge, past the houses, past the Supermarket, & industrial estate: Its on the A354 Road, heading towards ~~the~~ Dorchester: There's about 39 minutes of the Journey left to get to Dorchester, it is 4.01 pm: It's went past fields shrubs, Trees, Ploughfields, forest:

TRAVELING STORIES

Monday 5th October 015:

(40)

A Camper Van on the Left Road, of a Traveler in need of a Rest: past the Old houses & New houses, grasslands, A nice Thatched Cottage, with green grass, with Old metal fencing: What a Beautiful Old, fashioned Building lying opposite the Bus stop: Cows in a field, Hay in the Hay house to feed the Cows & Horses, passing More forest & Trees, & ploughfields, & Shrubs & Wooden fences on the side: side lanes, that are part of people's drive way: past Old Buildings, past a ^{brick} store hut, and greenery, & old fashioned houses, & Trees on the side, passing through more old buildings. Its really a very ~~historic~~ historic place, loads of Thatched Houses, & Old Buildings, past park lands, & Old farm Buildings: lots of geese in the field: Its seems like a very Ancient Village, full of Trees, Countryside, forest, fields: A silly lorry is blocking the Road, & needs to let us pass through: Its passing through old houses, & old Buildings, & New buildings: its passing through Countryside valleys, ploughlands, shrubs, forest. It went through Puddledown, past the School, past the forest &

TRAVELING STORIES:
Monday 5th October 015:

(51) Trees, Its on the A35 to Dorchester, passing through greenery, Forest, Trees, Rolling fields, with Sheep in the distance past avenues of Trees, past a few vehicles, past the farm lanes: Its only one mile on the B310 down to Dorchester: past the River Frome & its Bridge, past the industrial area, past the old houses & New houses & the old buildings & New Buildings past all the old shops, & past the New Shops & past the Old Church, past the Car park, past the offices past the West Dorset District Council place; past the park; past the old & Modern shops: past the Horse Sculpture: & it arrived at Dorchester at 4.46 pm, & the driver was driving a X5 Darnley a Local Bus Company, which I thanked him for the pleasant Journey: Im now waiting for the X51 to Bridport it will get there at 5.15 pm. We are at Dorset Now: The X51 has arrived & its heading to Bridport, Next stop past the shops past the Horse Sculpture, past the Cinema: I got the X51 near the Railway station; its in going towards Trinity street past all the shops: It left at 5.15 pm ^{opposite} the Railway station: Some of Dorchester is Old some of it is Modern: Its heading to ~~top~~ of town: past the Old Church,

Monday 5th October 015:

52 past the Old Buildings, past the Old Tea House built in 1635, a lovely old Building past Dorset County Hospital, past the Keep Military Museum

 The Military Museum doesn't interest me, I'm against War; its heading down to Gloucester Road, past Mountbury Square, past all the Old Armbouses, & Old Buildings, & passing through pebble View Ave
 past old houses & Modern houses past the engine Room, past the green, past Dorset Wine place, past Poundberry, past Mulford Spring, past sheep in the fields, past the green fields, & Old farm Buildings: Its Misty & Raining, at this moment, in Dorset Countryside:
 past the trees, forest, valleys, past through some Thatch House, & Modern Buildings, & also Old Houses, & More Old Thatched House past the pub & post office past Sterenton Manor, past Old farm & stone wall, through Countryside, Trees, Shrubs, forest, past a Old house, & fields running on the side of the trees: past metal gates, we are now at Winterbourne Sterenton lovely old houses along the route, some houses are Modern: Its passing through Winterbourne Abbas, past the Petrol Station.

TRAVELING DIARIES

Monday 6th October 015:

53

past Winterborne Valley first school, past the Thatch houses, & Old church its past the little chelf, & going to Little greddy turn: fantastic forest of Trees on top of the hill, lots of forest, farmland, shrubs, its heading to Kingston Brussels turn, Cows in the high field, passing through Mist & rain past another old house: & rolling humps on the hillside, past ploughfields, farm buildings, its mist is getting thick now, these rolling hills on my left; its going past Rightway Cross, you couldn't see at the back of your hand its so misty at Dorset; its going past Chulley stay, past all Ancient Countryside & fields, past Medgerows, past fields & Trees along the road to Bridport:
its going past Billy grass, past Buildings there was a Old Wall, its going along the A55, Shipton, Loo Lane, its on its way at Bridport: I saw a Sign saying Bridport; its heading to Toll house Bridport; a Historic Market Town: past the petrol station, past East Bridge, past the River Brit, past the Old Building & the Old houses & Old shops, & Modern shops, past the Cafes & Bridport Town Center: I saw a X53 & it was going to Axminster & so I thought I better get that Bus, the lady said, do you want me to stop this Bus, & I said yes:
Thank you I said to her, & the

TRAVELING STORIES:

Monday 5th October 2015:

(5A)

Man, said Be Sealed, I showed him my Buspass, He said you should of got it from the Bus Station: I said Sorry to him, I sat down: This is a X53 Wessex Bus, I its heading down to Axminster which is in Devonshire: It left at 6:09 pm from Bridport and its traveling past the fields, foundry, trees, houses on the Right, Countryside on the Left: Its going on the A35 Route to Axminster past the old house fields & Countryside past shrubs, ploughlands, past more houses, Old & New past the Old Thatched Pub: past Childcock post office past old houses & Thatched Cottages, past the Village Hall, past the greenlay, past the Old Houses, past the forest, past the farm shop, past the old houses, & old stone walls: lovely gardens, lovely old fashioned gates past the Old Church: past Newlyn's Holiday park, past the forest & Trees, & Countryside, fields, past the Modern & Old Houses, past the Caravans, past the Churmouth Church & its Old & Modern Houses, past Churmouth Center, past Churmouth Wood farm roundabout, past the forest, past the Coast path, past Hunters Lodge, past the green forest of Trees & Its

Monday 5th October 015.

53

Very misty still: Its is kind of nice its like being at fairyland: Its very beautiful: like being in the clouds The Bus driver is taking it very carefully Bless his Cotton Socks: Its gone past the Hunter Lodge Inn pub; what a evil name: Hunting should be Banned forever to Save the foxes, & Let the Foxes Run free without being Chased: past all the old houses, forest & Trees; past the petrol station, past the Talbot Arms pub; past the old houses & New houses; : We are at Lyme Regis now, in Dorset still past all the Old Houses, Thatched houses, Modern houses & old stone walls, past the Cinema up the Hill; I saw a little view of the sea; past pound Road, past the Thatched Cottage past the Modern Buildings past the school, past the Old houses, past the Old Wall & Cross Monument: past Modern houses, past the forest & Trees, past some houses, & its on the road to Axminster which will be hitting Devon soon: its on the Lyme Road now its going to Luke house; Its nearly at Axminster Now at the Lamb Inn its Now at Axminster Square now: past the Old Buildings & shops & pubs & back: past the Old Church, past the Co op shop. I will very soon be at Axminster Railway Station: It got here at Axminster Railway Station at 6.59pm: It was operated by First Wessex: The Man

Monday 5th October 015:

(56)

on the bus, was very friendly he said he been working on the buses for 11 years. I said that he wished he was like me, He told me that he likes his creature comforts, a nice bed to sleep on. He asked me, where I came from, I said Forest Gate, I he said he was from Watford North London. I told him that I used to live in Dagenham Essex, I that my Dad used to work at Fords, I after that we moved to East Ham. He told me that he lives at Charmouth, I told him that I live in St Erth, Cornwall. He said where that near, I said near Hayle. He said do you live in Rented House. I said yes I live at Rock Close House opposite the Star Inn pub. He said that Cornwall is in that darkest bit, that he said Dorset is the best. I said, all places are nice. I told him that I'm Nomadic. I he said that you have Gypsy in you. I said yes I do, My sister has gypsy in her too. He said he wished that he could lose weight. I that he 15 Stone he said I told him, that my sister is 15 Stone I wants to lose

TRAVELING DIARIES

Monday 5th October 015.

(57) Weight but Cant seem to Lose the weight even doe she bried & I said it might be her Medatizm he said that he is tried, & doesnt seem to like his Job much I said you can always be like me he said that he might do that. I said good bye to him & thanked him for a pleasant Journey & told him that I traveled all the way from St Erth Cornwall — Oxford — finehamstead in two days He was amazed: I told him that I traveled back from ^{finehamstead} Oxford — Axminster that Im on my way down to Exeter: I sleep the Night Somewhere, near Exeter but not in the town, or City but Somewhere where its dry & I try, and see if there a church porch nearby; I try, and sleep there I told him that Tuesday I will be traveling from Exeter — St Erth Cornwall & arrive there in the Evening I wished him well: I Waved at him, and caught the 4 Bus that left at Axminster Railway Station at 7.15 pm & we are heading down to Exeter Coach Station: We been through lovely Countryside fields, trees, forest, places, we arrived at Honiton, its in Devonshire its a Big Town, past the shops, the old Brick Walls: Its following - the A30 to Exeter: We are parked outside the Industrial area, and its going past the Retail park: Its going through a Country Road, past the Countryside, Trees & forest: Its pitch Black as it get dark early: The Bus headlights lights the way: Its heading to another Lane through the forest, trees, Countryside, past Old houses, & Old Stone Walls, past some Modern houses, past Countryside, Shrubs, & fields some houses, Its arrived at Ottery St Marys; past the Old houses, pubs, shops, & banks, & old Buildings, past the shops & houses of a Small Town: past Barrack Road; past the fields & the Modern Houses in the distance: I cant Believe it that Boris wanting to build house's there it seems Madness, It carrying on along a clyk Lane, past the trees, forest, fields, past wooden fences, Its at West Hill, a Woodland Village a fairly quiet place; past the Old & Modern houses, past Hedges, past trees, its lit up in some areas, It going past Rochbeare Road, past Houses, Shrubs, Old Buildings past Trees, ~~Shrubs~~, fields, through ~~to~~ to Marsh Green, past

(58)

183177

TRAVELING DIARIES:

Monday 5th October 015:

(59) past Old houses, Trees, fields, & Countryside, ~~under~~ over the top of the metal Bridge, past shrubs, Trees, Old Buildings, Countryside Rockbeare we ^{went} past too, past Rockbeare Church, past the Old Buildings, past stone walls, shrubs, past Modern houses & Old houses, past Cranbrock Vets place, past the petrol station: Along past the New built ugly houses, past the wooden Bus shelter, We are on the way down to the Science park, Clyst Honiton, past the Duke of York pub. Its heading to Exeter the A3015, past the park & Ricle place, past the Industrial place under the Railway Bridge, underneath another Old Brick Bridge: past the Houses, past the petrol station, past the Modern Houses & Flats, past Old houses, past the petrol station, past the shops, past the Old Buildings, past Fore street, past St Lukes Campus: past the Old houses, We are at Exeter Coach station

I got to Exeter Bus & Coach station at 8.45 pm, I said Thank you to the Bus driver, I asked if they knew if there was any church that had shelters to sleep in; (~~for~~) They said there one at the Cathedral: I asked if they had a Chip Shop in town, they said in Fore street: I was looking around the City for somewhere to sleep: I tried to find a chip shop, but couldn't find one; I founded a Tent, I slept at Salandar

TRAVELING DIARIES

Monday 5th October 015:

(50)

Bank tent: It was nice inside the tent, & I got my sleeping gear out, & I rolled it out, & I slept in my two sleeping bags. It was cosy, & I felt safe there in the tent: A Blackbird woke me up around 3 something Am I got up, & I rolled my sleeping gear in a roll: & put Bungee Cords on them: & put them in my Trolley: It was too early
It was Tuesday Morning 6th October 015.

Tuesday 6th October 015:

I had a bit of a walk, down to the City Center; it was very Monstrous, so many Multi National Companies there that I dare not go in to them, I Rafter Support Local & Local Cafes; Local Shops: I went to the Cathedral & it wasn't open but saw it from the outside: The Houses were Medieval Very Ancient: I sat near the tree for a while until it started to rain, & I thought I did not want to get wet, I thanked the tree for letting me sit there. The Moon was beautiful a Crescent Moon: & I followed it all the way until I saw the Tent again I didn't bother to take the sleeping gear out, I managed to find a thick ^{plastic tent} bag enough to sleep in & I even put white pads inside the bag to keep myself warm:

TRAVELING STORIES.
Tuesday 6th October 015.

89

I was alright & Very Warm
I glad that Salander bevided a Tent there, as it kept me dry, & I heard the Rain, it was heavy Rain that Rain for a few hours: & I heard the Birds again, & I woke up, before the Sun Woke up; but it was another grey day today: I put everything where it was in the Salander Tent: I not a fan of Multi National Banks or Multi National Building Societies, but was very thankful that it kept me dry & kept me warm: I got off to walk around the City to see if I could find the toilets & a Local Cafe: but it was 6.50 am & none of the shops would of been open yet, except for some: & I thought I just come back to the Bus & Coach station, & see if there is a connection: There's one at 9.30 am that leaves from Exeter Bus & Coach station & it goes to Drumbridges roundabout, the X38 Bus doesn't leave here until 10.45 am that's for the free Buspass to use on that route: & It even goes to Drumbridges Roundabout & I could get the X38 Bus from Drumbridges Roundabout to go to Plymouth: The X38 will arrive at Drumbridges Roundabout at 11.15 am, & This is where I can find my connection of the Two Buses that I need to get: I was a stupid Idiot: I can't believe myself that I Wondered in the Coaches Cafe in Exeter & They bloody support Coca Cola, I am

⑥2

Never ever going to go in that Cafe ever again, because Coca Cola, destroy the Rain forest; I I having none of it: I Just dont know Why I bought Baked Beans on Toast there for £2.28p I never ever go in to the Coach Cafe that Support Coca Cola: I will Make Sure that there is no Advertising of Multi National Companies because I will avoided it I Make Sure that everything is Local: I hope that Multi National Companies will fade away I become Bankrupt: To give Local a chance; They The Coaches Cafe are not getting my Service again: I will avoid them horrible nasty Cafe, they dont seem to Care about the Enviroment or the Earth: Wake up Local people, Stop Supporting Multi National Companies: because I was Stupidley Hungry for Baked Beans on Toast: I will punish myself; I get Myself on the True Rightous path, without Making Mistakes: It has turn Sunny today, Blue Skies & White clouds. It looks like its going to be a Sunny day: The 38 Bus has left Exeter at 9.30 am: It going past the Shops, its at Lower summerlands Bus stop & heading its went past the police station, past the Old houses, Past the Modern houses, past the Stone wall: Past all the old houses &

TRAVELING STORIES

Tuesday 6th October 015.

(6B) I offices, past the sports field, past the 'Bloody Barracks' army place;
past all the houses & walking Bridge up above us; past all the greenery & trees & forest; past all the houses: Its now on the Topsham Road, it turned off to Bridge Road: its gone past more houses on the left it gone over the ^{bridge} Bridge & River, past South West Water Company at Countess Weir: past all the trees & forest, past the Devon Hotel: past the plough fields, past shrubs, past the Motorway Bridge, past the green fields & Countryside, We are at the Devon Express Way A38: Its going through to Chudleigh, lovely Countryside & fields & trees, There is Old houses & New Houses there, & shops there, past the Old church besides a Old Church Wall. & more old houses, past the police station, past shrubs, Trees, forest, past Chudleigh Station; past greenery, past the forest, Sheep in the fields, its going on the B344 Road to Bovey Tracy; past the Anchor Inn. pub, past the Old Church & Old & Modern houses, past a river, shrubs, Trees, its about 2 miles to Bovey Tracy past Williams gate: past the forest, Trees , Countryside, shrubs, hedgerows, past the Roadworkers, past the flowers, Hedge's Houses, a Old Church in the distance; past Thatched Cottages, Old houses, past old Walls past the pubs; past the post office past the shops, The lady will push the Button for the Drumbridges Roundabout

TRAVELLING STORIES

Tuesday 6th October 015.

(61) for me: Bovey Tracy is a lovely town, There is some Old houses, some New, past some old shops, past the cafe, past the Car park: It's on the Ashburton Road, past the Bridge, past Old & New houses; past the Motor Repair shop: it's now in Teigh past the House of Marbles: past the Mobile home place, past the forest & trees, & fields, past the Industrial place: I saw County Buses there, I think it's a local Bus Company: past the greenery it down at Battle Road, past the Bus shelter, the Industrial estate: past the shops, at Heathfield past the post office: In at the Drumbridge Roundabout; I Now waiting for the plymouth Bus the X38 going to plymouth: It will arrive at 11:15 am & it will get to plymouth at 12:27 pm The X38 Bus arrived at Drumbridge Roundabout, it picked me up at 11:15 am it went past Liverton, Liverton post offices & past the houses & fields & Countryside & forest, past the stone bridge, past the fields, Vallies, Countryside, farmlands, past Linhaey: past Shrubs V: We are now at Ashburton: past the Old churches, past the old houses, past the Old shops & Modern shops: It's heading to Buckfast-leigh station Approach: It's going past old houses, Old walls, past the Petrol Stations past the

Tuesday 6th October 015.

(65) Dartmoor Inn, past fields, Countryside, Vallies, past the Mill: past the River Dart Cafe, past the River Dart & Stone bridge, past all the houses & old walls: past the Railway place, at Buchfastleigh, past the trees, Countryside, forest Old & New houses: past the Bridge & Motorway bridge: past the fields, Vallies, & Countryside past Trees, forest, Old farm buildings, ploughlands. past through lovely greenery: past the sheep on the right field: We are at South Brent now, going past Modern & Old houses, past another Bus shelter made out of stone, & passed pass the stone Bridge, pass the Motorway Bridge, past the petrol station, past the green fields & farm buildings, its off to Bittaford Horse & Groom pub, past the houses, the industrial area: the Countryside, Trees, & forest: Its going past the Old Railway Bridge, past the fields, Countryside, forest, its heading to Ivybridge, its arrived at Ivybridge, past the Modern Houses, & Old houses & Old ^{Stone} Walls, shrubs, past the footpaths The Sportman Inn, past the Old Church: past the Car park & Car Showrooms, past the Old Church past the shops. the Old houses & New houses: Its on its way to Laira flyover: following the way to Plymouth: A38 its gone past Lee mill: past the Countryside, fields, Trees, Rock formation on the right: past farm lands & Buildings, past forest & shrubs: & Vallies: It is grey, and Misty past another motorway bridge, & another Motorway Bridge. We have arrived nearly, we are at Marsh Mills

TRAVELING STORIES

Tuesday 6th
October 015

66 past the industrial estate: We are passing along the river, on the left, & fields & allotments on the left past industrial estate. past the houses, we now passing Laura Bridge Road: past the shops, the park, & past the Old Church: past Exeter street & all of its shops, & Motor Repair shop: past the flats, past the City Center: past the Bingo Hall, the Royal Bank of Scotland, & past the shops, & I got off at the Royal Mile in Plymouth: & got the No 11 Bus is going to Liskeard: & left at 1:05pm: Its going past Western Approach, past the School, past the Blue Walking Bridge & the Railway Bridge, Its following the A38 to Liskeard, past the park, past the Houses, past Central park & its greenery, its at Milehouse Alma Road; changing drivers to give the other person who been driving a Rest; and a New driver taking it on: past the Brittanica Inn pub, past Tesco express, past all the shops & houses, past the Gospel Hall. past the Co op stores & Lidis stores; past the Greenley, Old flats, the Old stone wall: past the old & Modern houses, past the School, past the power station, Car showrooms. past the MOT garage past st Budeaux Community Center, past the Co op shop & Lidis past the Barber shops, past all the houses. We are now over the Thoma Bridge & are now in Cornwall a place

1859 st Budeaux

68 called ~~Saltash~~: As we are now in Cornwall: past all of the shops in Saltash past the houses, the green, & the River in the distance: past the houses, shops, & flats, past the Countryside in the distance: past Coop funeral Care Shop: past the ploughboy pub; past the houses, past all the fields & Countryside, trees, forest, Its lovely, & Sunny in Sunny Cornwall: past through the Vallies, Rolling Hills, Countryside, Trees, & forest: & fields: We are passing through Landrake: past the houses, past the Blue Bridge, past the Cows in the fields & Rolling Countryside, past Ticeford & the Riverside garage: past loads of Trees & forest: & ~~scenery~~ in the near field, past the garage, past the farm Buildings & the Cows in the field: past Trees & forest & fields past the ~~Attornments~~; past the ploughed fields, past a Holiday Motorhome on Holiday, past the farm lands & farm Buildings, We are past the Cheagued, Flay Cafe, past the Sheep in the fields, past the Hotel, past the flower garden roundabout, past the green, & its heading to Liskeard past the Business park, past idils shop: past the petrol station, past Belgrade Terrace: Its heading to the town Center: past the Church, old Wall, Its Now waiting for another Bus driver; & the good News is this bus is going to Wadebridge: The other Bus driver is on the Bus: The Driver said its going to be at Wadebridge at 3pm: Its going past the Library, the shops of Liskeard: going past all the houses.

TRAVELING STORIES

Tuesday 6th October 015:

(68)

It is Raining or drizzling, It going past the Countryside, forest Trees, the farm stores, It gone past the Wire Bridge, its going to Dobwalls Its Summer again: past all the shops, houses, past the Highway man pub, past the fields, Countryside, past the Car showground: The Bodmin Way was called because of a accident on the Road Its having to take the St Austell Route; past fields, land, Countryside past East Taphouse Community Center, past forest & Trees; past houses:
The lands & forest & Vallies & Trees are So beautiful & Special in our Cornish Countryside & Landscapes: This Lane will bring us on the Bodmin Way: past the Cabbages in the field: past the forest & trees, its so lovely to see the Trees again in Cornwall: past a Old Railway Bridge made out of granite or Stone Its on the Road again: past the Forest & Trees & it Vallies & Countryside of Bodmin Natational park; past the Old Bridge, the old Walls, The Old & The New Railways, & Bodmin parkway, through to the Old Stone Bridge; past the old stone wall, & Timber yard, past all the Forest & Trees, & the Landscapes
The fields all the Hay are in plastic Black Bags; to keep the Rain off: We are past Bodmin Rugby Club, We are Heading down to Bodmin Town Center

TRAVELING STORIES:

Tuesday 6th October 015.

(69)

Wadebridge is about 8 miles away past the Countryside, past Cummins Car showground its about 1/2 mile to Bodmin Town Center past the Old Bridge, past the Old Church, past all the Old, & Modern Shops; past all the Old houses & New houses: & Old Buildings, past St. petros: & its ancient walls: past Bodmin's Old Railway Station: past all the Old houses & New houses past the Trees, past the pet food place past the Scout place, past the footpath & greenery: We went past Old walls & Old Houses & Old Buildings, past Old & Modern Buildings, past trees, past the petrol garage its going to Bodmin Hospital, past fields Countryside. & a site that these Bloody Bastard Developers have got a hold off, & They are Sick, These Developers are; & will be punished, by the wrong that they do the Earth Mother: It is Route that this Bus is going through is very beautiful went past to Washaway: A Red telephone Box on the side, pasted through old houses, Trees, & gardens & past a Hotel, past a Old Church, past lovely forest & trees & Old houses: A Avenue of Trees that greet us in a very gracefull way: & The different Colours of these Leaves of the Autumn time around the Bodmin area; it pasted Sladebridge a lovely village, & Slade House Inn Pub past the stone wall, past the garden center, past the fields & green Countryside: We are at Wadebridge now it twinned in

Tuesday 6th October 015:

(78)

Brittany; There a lovely River Running through the other side of the green fields, & the park is on the left; past all the old & New houses, past the Dennis ground; past Wadebridge park; past the greenley, past the old church; past the Bridge End Garage past the Old Bridge & the River with a view of the birds & the Bridge in the distance & past all the shops & past the Town Hall; past the Library past the Railway station & Now we are here at Wadebridge Bus station:

This one was a City Bus 75 Bus Super Rider that arrived at Wadebridge at 3pm: & I said

Thank you for the Journey:

I just caught the 5.25pm Bus 94 from Wadebridge — Newquay

✓ The timetable are crazy &

Mad: like for example ~~17.50~~ Am

2.50pm which I missed in 10 Mins because the 75 ^{Bus} didn't get to Wadebridge until 3pm & I had to wait bloody 2 hour & 35 minutes which I feel is a bloody sick joke of the Bus Company & this stupid Government, making up all the Rules: They know that people need Regular Bus Services not every hour or 2 hours or more: That aint right, it is wrong

TRAVELING STORIES:

Tuesday 6th October 015:

(69) and that it arrives in Bloody Newquay at 6:20 pm: It all Madness & The Bus drivers on the 94 & 95 like to be lazy: & They are saying well there not enough people going on these Buses, is that their excuse of the Bus Company? because it needs damn changing, I spoke to some people some people are angry about it & This Dear Old Lady has made a strong petition to try and get the Bus Companies to improve on their Timetables so that you dont have to wait for a long time for a Bus: It gone through Wadebridge Tesco past all the shops, the Old Bridge; The Old & New houses, the Old Town Hall, past Old Buildings & New buildings through to Countryside & fields past trees, & forest & farmland past the Royal Cornwall Showground, past Winnards perch, & past through lovely Countryside, & trees, & forest & fields past old & New houses of St Columb Major past the Old houses & New houses. past St Columb Minor, Shop corner past Porth four Turns, past Newquay, & all of its shops: Amusement Arcades Banks & Estate Agents etc: It has arrived at Newquay its nearing towards the Bus station: Where I can pick up the Connection: from Newquay a 93 Bus from Newquay - Truro Bus station I caught the Bus from Newquay Bus Station, and it lefted at 6:25 pm & that

TRAVELING STORIES

Tuesday 6th October 015:

(70)

That it will arrive at 7-30pm at Truro Bus station: Its going past the Great Western Hotel past all the shops, the Seaside Town, past all the houses, past porth - Four Turns: Its going through lovely Countryside, fields, Shrubs trees along the Route to Truro past all the forest. past the fields past the Lorries, past the Aerohub park, past the fields, past a Old house, past shrubs, past the Airport Signal place, past farmers fields past the petrol station, it went past st Colomb minor, past the shop, past Quintell Downs, past Dairyland & past all the houses, past white cross, & past Newaway Holiday park, past the industrial area; It went through to st. Columb Major & through the Village past the houses & some shops: Its heading to st Columb Road, going past Hedges, Countryside, fields, & Heading to Indian Queens past the Hedges, Countryside, Houses, shops & Old Buildings, the Old Church past Indian Queens: past the houses church; it made it to Fraddon Hill and to Fraddon Village, past the church & the Old Walls past the Old Houses & Thatched pub: past some New houses past the trees Countryside, past Kingsley Village Its now going past the Industrial area

TRAVELING STORIES

Tuesday 6th October 015:

(73)

I its going towards the Motorway past the trees, Countryside, forest, Shrubs, past the industrial area; I Carring along this Road, it is Raining past Mitchell: past the old houses, the Trees, it turned around, its going to St Erme past the fields, Countryside, forest & trees its going past Carlands Close: Truro has 6 miles to go; I is going past nice Countryside, shrubs, trees, forest it gone past Trispen past the old houses & old walls & past lots of old walls & shrubs; it went through to some New Buildings, past the Village Hall: past the fields & Countryside its going on the A39 to Truro its only got 3 more miles to do, past through fields, Countryside, shrubs, past the Cementorium, I saw a Sign back there it said Truro, it gone past the houses, past the Estate, As heading down to the City Center past the Buildings past the church & past the roundabout, I following it towards the Bus Station at 7:35pm Truro Bus Station! It left at 7:35pm the Number 18 Bus, it left Truro Bus Station; pasted all the shops, The Arts Cafe, The Town Hall, & past the Rail Station, past the station Walls; past the house's greenery, its following the Road to Redruth A30 past the pub, past the Vets place, past the old & New Buildings, past the Roadworks: Its crazy that they want to widen the road.

Tuesday 6th
October 015

TRAVELING STORIES

④

It going past the Kenwyn parish as we are now, in the Kenwyn parish past the industrial areas, past the College & university; past the Multi National Companies of Mc Donnards & pizza King; past Richard Lander School, past the houses, industrial area, past the trees, the houses, past the Hospital, Threemilestone; its heading down to Chacewater past green fields, Countryside, past the houses, past the Church, past the Kings Head pub at Chacewater, past the Village, past the Countryside, fields, trees, forest, past Houses, its going ~~to~~ St Day past the petrol station, past the houses, past Mount Ambrose, past the Car cleaning place; past the houses, the greenley, its Heading down to Redruth, past the Old houses & New houses; past the Rail station at Redruth; past the post office, past the gospel church; past the houses, Old & New houses, past the greenley, past Bloominghouse past the houses, past the petrol station, past the Car building past the houses, past the pub, past Jackson; Builders place; past Mac's Hardware store, past, pool college, industrial Crap area of pool; & full of Multi National Corporate Companies. There evil will fall on to these Nasty Multi National Companies that they Created; It will fall on them.

TRAVELING STORIES
Tuesday 6th October 015:

⑬ It gone through past Redruth, & peal, & its in at Cambourne Bus station: I think that they might have a change of Bus drivers, and It had a different Driver, but also a different Bus, I Saw a glimpse of May's friend, a female friend & she knew me, & We Waved at each other, & I told her, that I back from my travels, & in Cornwall now, & Said I see you soon: I Brow her a Kiss to her: It left Cambourne & went past the houses, the police station, the hotel, past all the shops in Cambourne, past the church; past the fire station, and other houses, It was heading down to Roseworthy, & it went past the fields, Countryside, Trees, forest, on the Road to Hayle, and past the Old houses & farmlands, it was traveling down to Connor Downs, really Beautiful Countryside; but Cant believe that they built lots of ^{new} houses near Connor Down That David Commone who in charge at the Houses of pariment, hasn't a clue in what he's doing to Cornwall & Britain, He is, Selling Cornwall & England by the pound; destroying the very fabric of Cornwall, & Britain by telling this stupid Government to have the go ahead in Building Thousands upon Thousands of Houses or Millions of Houses, that is slowly Murdering the Countryside: They should be Laws not to build on greenbelt Land.

TRAVELING STORIES

Tuesday 6th October 015.

76

But they still do, When if all going to stop: I hope that the Developers across the Country Run out of Money: That all the Developers to become Bankrupt We must Save Mother Earth & Save ourselves by doing the right thing in Caring for our Mother Earth & Walking Lightly on our Earth:

It went past the old houses & the New houses, and past the Old post office at Canner Downs, past the Village Hall past the petrol garage, past the pub & heading down to Loggans Moor, past the fields, Countryside, forest, houses, shrubs, & Trees, past Loggans Moor, past Lidi's, past the West Cornwall shopping park, past all the houses, past all the shops & old Buildings past the river & Bridge in the distance past Copperhouse - fore street past the fire station, past the industrial units past more houses, past Hayle, & its harbour, past the shops, past the Banks, past the Old Bridge, & heading down past the greenery, the Old Stone Walls, & the Countryside path & Trees & the ~~Beds~~ going past the houses the Old petrol garage, past the Bird Reserve at Hayle, & followed the Roundabout to St Erth Industrial Estate, & I got off at St Erth Station at 8.52 pm and said good Bye to the Lady

TRAVELING STORIES

Tuesday 6th October 015:

(78) Driver, I mention about my Two Day Journey there & two day Journey back, & she said that fantastic & that I used my free Bus pass to travel from A - B: She thought that was Brilliant: & We both said our Good Byes: It took 15 Minutes to Walk down from St Erth Station — to Rock Close House No^s 8; oppersite the Star Inn at St Erth: I had to use the toilet at St Erth to empty myself: I got down to my place: I Sorted everything out, I put everything in its right Order, I had a Shower to clean all the Dirt, Sweat of my Very body & felt good; I dried myself: I putted my Night Clothes on & had something to eat Bombay Mix leftovers & Cold Baked Beans, & a Cup of Water, plus I cleaned my Teeth & Slept like a Log, & dreamed.